Man was not meant to be locked into a room,

never to see the outside world.
The human mind was not meant to be wasted.

But for the person who has the opportunity to reach out of that room for knowledge and receive it, this is the "natural."

It is the growth of mind and spirit to learn and absorb new things.

It is "natural" for the student to learn for the mind is "naturally inquisitive."

At Rend Lake College the students exist in a constant state of the "natural" from studying living organisms . . .

To blowing out a bit of Count Basie . . .

To overhauling a car or growing crops the student is experiencing. The experience is really what it's all about.

The learning experience is actually a "natural" trip

What could be better than getting high on education?

At Hannakuh, Anne presents her parents with some homemade gifts

Mrs. VanDann screams at the loss of her most prized possession.

On November 12 and 13, the Rend Lake College Fine Arts Department presented the dramatic production of "The Diary of Anne Frank," a dramatization by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett.

The play follows the adventures and anxieties of Jewish refugees hiding in a tiny attic in Nazi occupied Amsterdam during World War II. It centers on Anne, a thirteen year old adolescent who, even though she's cooped up for over two years in a tiny attic, experiences the joys and frustrations of growing up.

Under the direction of Fred Vallowe, an RLC graduate, "The Diary of Anne Frank" enjoyed a huge success.

Margot tries to make do in the tiny attic.

Anne writes her most personal thoughts in her diary.

Mr. VanDann contemplates his plight with Mrs. VanDann and Peter sitting nearby.

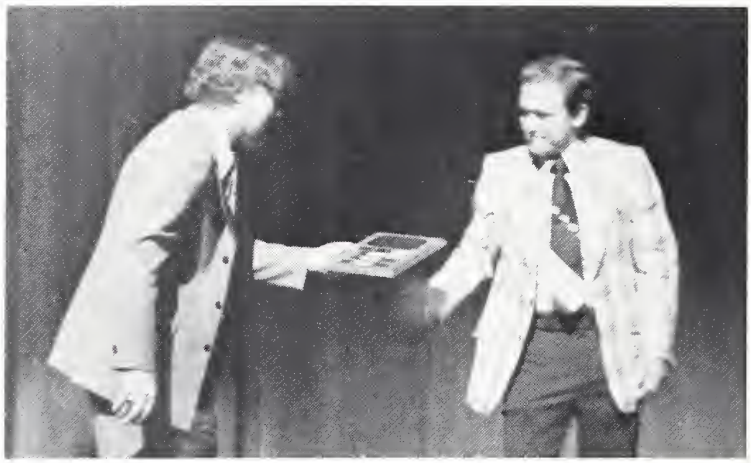
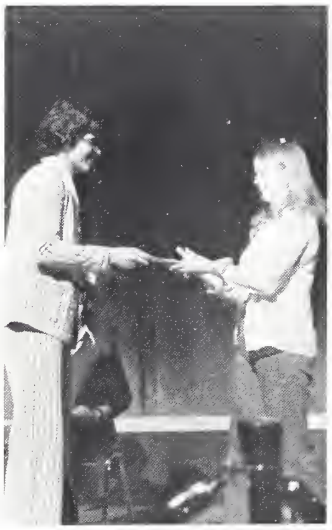
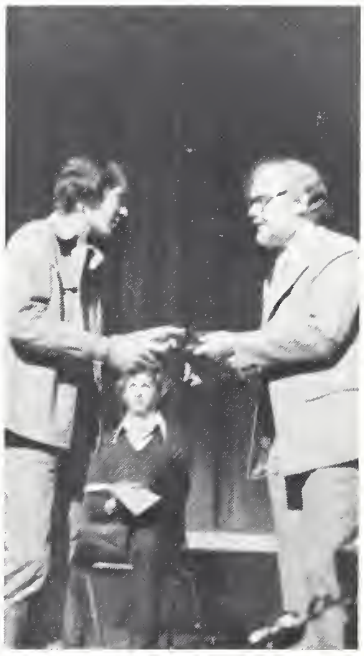
The Musical comedy, revolving around a Shakespearean theatre group, concerns Fred Graham, his fiery ex-wife, Lilli Vanessi and a new play which they have come together to stage. An I.O.U., two whacky gangsters, a flirty chorus girl and her jealous boyfriend, all combined to make Kiss Me Kate a very enjoyable and successful show.

Honors Day





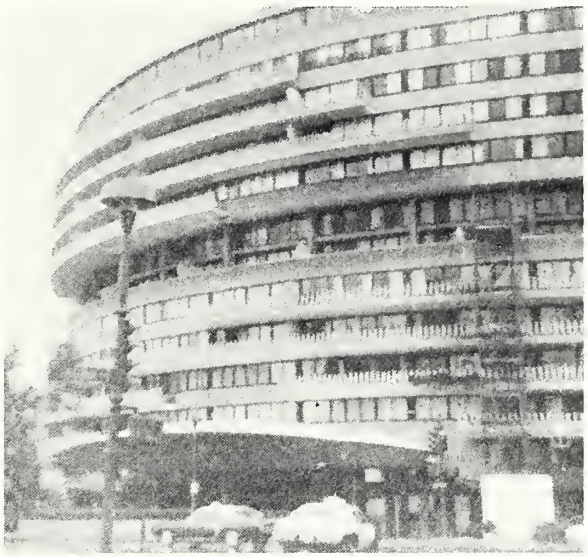
The talent and ability of R.L.C. students is exhibited in a wide variety of areas. Each year an Honors Day is set aside to recognize these students. Many departments and organizations give awards to the outstanding students in their respective area.



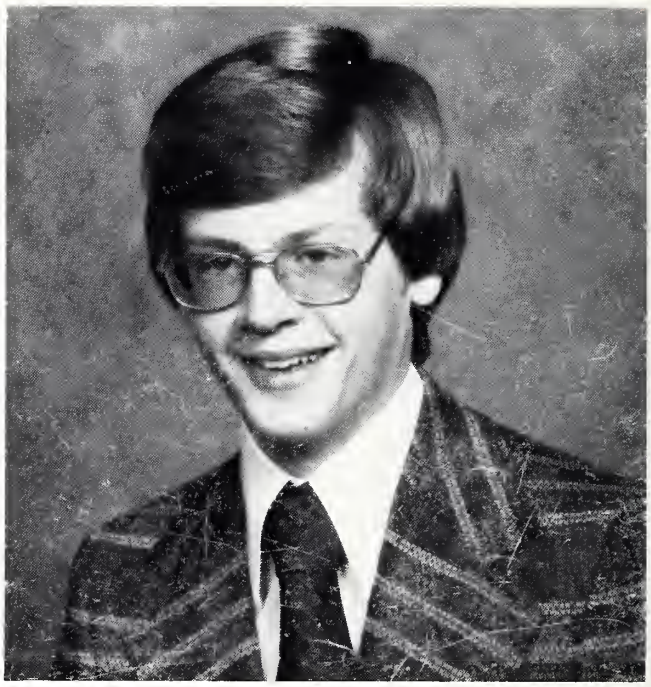
The American Red Cross Bloodmobile visited the RLC campus twice this past year, once on October 27 and again on March 16. Wayne Arnold, the faculty co-ordinator, set up the gym for the Red Cross and, with the help of his health classes, distributed pledge cards to students and faculty. Such efforts produced a record amount of blood given at the college.

Collegiate Choir

The Rend Lake College Collegiate Choir and Brass Ensemble traveled to Washington D.C. last May to perform on the elipse in front of the White House on Memorial Day. The choir was one of two groups picked to represent the State of Illinois. Choir Members include: FRONT ROW, L-R: Larry D. Phifer, Director and Cheryl Foley, Narrator. 2nd ROW, L-R: Hyla Farthing, Elaine Galloway, Sheila McMahon, Judy Cole, Beki Mattingly, Sarah Jones, Barbara Bugle, Greta Garbo. 3rd ROW, L-R: Lori Fields, Teresa Davis, Beverly Waler, Sheri Hobbs, Sara Partridge, Cindy Hodge, Jane Hinschen, Lisa Rhodes. 4th ROW, L-R: Kevin Martin, Dave Biby, Stephen Pitrowski, Tom Mick, Alan Wilson, Pete Harris, Mark Craig. 5th ROW, L-R: John McGill, Rob Dycus, Gary Arnold, Charles Pendell, Dan Reynolds, Mitch Fulford, Mike Avery.



On Memorial Day, 1976, the Rend Lake College Collegiate Choir travelled to Washington D.C. to sing on the Elipse near the White House in conjunction with the National Park Service Bicentennial Concerts. The choir, accompanied by a Brass Ensemble, was one of two groups picked to represent the state of Illinois during the bicentennial year string of outdoor concerts. The choir left from Mt. Vernon by bus and travelled to Washington where they spent two hectic days trying to see all the sights of the nations capitol. On Monday, Memorial Day, they performed on the Elipse and then were escorted on a private tour of the White House. Upon returning home, the choir and brass ensemble recorded their concert through the courtesy of MCA records.



Gary Arnold

This year six Rend Lake College students received recognition in the 1977 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges. The students were selected by a campus nominating committee in recognition of their outstanding abilities in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and service.

Music abounded at Rend Lake College this year whether you went in for the formal concerts, performed by such groups as The RLC Collegiate Choir (TOP), a little outdoor music to pass the time between classes (CENTER) or an informal concert by the RLC Jazz Band in the Student Center (BOTTOM).

Terri Samuels and Kelly Mumbower were chosen as the Student Achievers for the 1976-77 school year. Winners of the Student Achievement Recognition Program competition, held each year at Rend Lake College, are selected as the students who have made the most noteworthy progress toward their career goals and have shown outstanding leadership qualities through participation in campus and community activities.

Competition is held on the local, regional, and state levels. A $100 award is given to each winner in 48 local competition levels. The two winners from each of the six districts receive $250. The district winners will be judged by a three man panel and the two state wide winners will then receive $1,000 each.

Vince Mitchell, of Enfield, was chosen as this years Outstanding Agriculture Student. He was chosen on the basis of academic performance, interest and cooperation with faculty and students. Shown above are Bob Brown, BASF Wyndotte Corp.; Leavell Swink, RLC instructor; Mitchell, Dr. Ken LaSalle, Dean of Instruction; and Dan Keeley, District Manager, BASF Wyndotte Corp., sponsors of the first annual agriculture banquet.

A new musical group was formed this year at RLC. The "Vocal Minority," a choral group composed of eight RLC students and a small back-up group, sing mostly pop arrangements by recent composers. The group sang at many area activities, including the area Senior Citizens picnic at the lake, and it also performed at the annual Spring Choral Concert. This pop group rounds out the choral department at RLC, which includes the RLC Collegiate Choir, and the area Community Chorus.
